We Welcome You

Announcements Continued

We have received an order of The Great Controversy for members who want to pass them along to family, coworkers, or friends.

Our February project will be supporting Bridge Refugee Services, a Knoxville nonprofit committee, providing protection and assistance in refugees' inspiring journeys.

They have asked us to provide $10 Walmart gift cards that they can provide as attendance incentives for the series of classes on health and healthcare UT will be holding there.

You can either purchase the $10 gift cards yourself or donate through an offering. Write on your tithes offering envelope, 'Bridge' and we'll purchase the gift cards to donate.

Thank you for your generosity and for loving the least of these in our midst.

SESS - In the past 10 years, Bridge has resettled more than 2,400 refugees from Africa, Southeast Asia, Eastern Europe, Central and South America and the Middle East.

UT made an award-winning film – “7 Days in America”. Just scan the above QR code with your photo app, and it will ask if you want to go to the site or Vimeo will show up, click that to get to the video. If you have questions, please ask Linda Burke.
